My Parental Promise

When my child was baptized, I promised to "bring him/her to the services of God's house and to provide for my child's instruction to the Christian faith". I renew that promise, and will make attendance at Sunday School a priority for my child(ren), and will faithfully bring my child(ren) to worship services. I will also make a commitment to my own continued Christian education by attending classes too while the children are in theirs. I promise to show an interest in my child(ren)'s Sunday School work and to support our Sunday School program to the best of my ability.

Those with young children: To ensure the well-being of my 2-6 year old, I will remain on the church premises during the discipleship hour and personally drop off and pick up my younger child(ren) at his/her classroom. I will inform the teacher of my whereabouts in the church building in case I am needed.
